

AMERICANS HELD UP BY VILLISTA ROBBER GANGS

Party Arrives at Laredo,
Texas, After Having Endured Terrible Experience

EL PASO HAS FEAR OF VILLA REVENGE

War of Extermination Against Americans May be Result.

LAREDO, Tex., June 17.—A party of American refugees, held up and robbed of everything, including their clothing by Mexican bandits near Jimenez, Mexico, arrived here today. The Mexicans also beat members of the party with rifle butts. Miss Isabel Maley and two other Americans escaped in a desert and finally reached Chihuahua where Americans assisted them to the border. They said they do not know what became of the other Americans. They may have perished in the desert.

Miss Maley said the party was en route from Mexico City to the United States via Chihuahua. When the train reached Jimenez where the bandits had torn up the tracks, they were forced to hire a Mexican driver to take them to Chihuahua City. Shortly after leaving Jimenez the bandits stopped the party, robbing them of everything.

EL PASO, June 17.—Fears are felt here that Villistas' snarling under their defeat at the hands of the American expedition into Mexico may begin a campaign of extermination against United States citizens in Chihuahua. Americans with interests in Chihuahua met here to debate the question of recalling their men and closing the mines and smelters in view of almost certain Villista attacks.

CITY'S MILK SUPPLY COMPARES FAVORABLY

Pendleton's milk supply compares favorably in regard to butter fat and absence of bacteria to the milk supply of Spokane, Seattle, Portland, Tacoma and Olympia, according to tests just completed by Chester P. Hoyt, market milk specialist, U. S. department of agriculture. Mr. Hoyt has in his western jurisdiction only the above cities, but through the efforts of Miss Lorene Parker, county demonstration agent, he was induced to come to Pendleton for this special work.

Tests made of 12 samples show that the average butter fat in the milk is 4.7. This is more than the milk supply of Denver, which averaged 3.2. The bacteria tests make it ap-

Continued on page six.)

FORD INTERESTS NOT SOLD SAYS DEALER

The General Motors Company has not bought out the Ford interests, according to first hand information received this morning by Bob Simpson, local Ford dealer. This news contradicts a general rumor that the General Motors Co. had taken control of the Ford company.

Mr. Simpson's information says also that if Henry Ford builds a cheaper car, he will sell it through Ford dealers. Word from Edsel Ford, vice-president of the company, states that while reports as to the new and cheaper machine have been greatly distorted and exaggerated, the Ford company may manufacture such a car but when it will be done is impossible to say. He declares that such a car could not be possibly be designed, tested, manufactured and marketed in quantities under two or three years' time.

There is nothing indefinite, however, in regard to the present Fords. There are 2,000,000 in daily use, and the 1919-20 output is estimated at 1,225,000.

FRENTZEL BUYS OUT BUSINESS PARTNER

A. A. Frentzel today purchased the interest of E. E. Campbell in the firm of Campbell and Frentzel, Lexington auto dealers, and will conduct the business alone for the present. The agency will be retained at 122 Cottonwood street, but Mr. Frentzel said that new and larger quarters would be taken as soon as a suitable place could be found.

Mr. Campbell will remain for the present in Pendleton but was unable today to divulge the plans he has for the future.

Earl Ne Bring N. Y.

Earl Ne, who is a brother of the Melville when it was aboard the NC-3 back to New York after it attempted flight across the Atlantic.

Newquist, who is a brother of Melville, says in a letter that the NC-3 was fortunate enough to drift toward the Melville, the mother ship of the flotilla which placed the relief ships for the plane. When taken in charge by the Melville, Newquist states, the NC-3 had been adrift 46 hours. The plane could get messages from the ship but it was impossible for the ship to receive the messages from the plane. The local man says the NC-3 weighed 15 tons, with four engines of 100 horse power each. The NC-3 took off from the Melville and Newquist sent a picture of the event.

SIXTY VOTES ELECT SMITH AND BUDGET

Sixty votes were cast in the school election yesterday, in which E. L. Smith was returned to the board as director without opposition and the proposed budget of $38,500 carried. But four votes were cast against the budget.

Mr. Smith was installed in his three year term at the regular meeting of the board last night, following the closing of the polls. The board re-elected Manuel Friedley chairman for the coming year and also re-elected H. E. Bickers clerk. This is Mr. Bickers' third year of his present term, he having served as clerk several years previously.

The chief business transacted last evening was the ordering of advertising for the city schools. The bids will be opened early in July.

Treaty is Just; Enemy Must Sign Says Pres. Wilson

PARIS, June 17.—Here is President Wilson's attitude toward the revised peace treaty with Germany, as outlined this afternoon by one of his closest friends and confidants: "The peace treaty is just. Naturally it is a compromise. However, we must always remember that Germany provoked the war and committed indescribable atrocities and outrages. The bill for this is now presented to her. She must pay. We will not bargain. Rather than bargain we shall accept no signature."

HERO OF EASTLAND DISASTER WILL SPEAK AT ALTA TONIGHT

Arthur Leob, hero of the Eastland disaster, in which he saved 38 lives and reclaimed 47 dead bodies, and known as the king of the bell divers, is a Pendleton visitor today on his way from Australia to his home in Chicago.

Leob, who for the past 13 years has been employed at the government life saving station, Jackson Park, Chicago, was in the water for 13 consecutive hours during the disaster. He wears scars from a 14 foot dive into the hull of the Eastland to save the body of a woman. In making the dive he fractured his skull and was unconscious for 28 hours and 22 minutes, and three times was given up as a diver. Leob is the only living person who ever survived a skull fracture and a broken blood vessel in the forehead. He has 21 scars on his shoulder and 14 on his leg since the accident and has been inoculated again and again against typhoid because of his germ in the Chicago river. The hero possesses the Carnegie medal, set with five diamonds and valued at $10,000, and the Chicago and North Shore medals.

In Australia Leob has been working as a diver while laying foundations for the government. He expects to leave soon for France, where he will be head

146TH AND 148TH ARTILLERY HAVE LANDED IN NEW YORK

Pendleton's famous Troop B boys will be back in the home town for the 1920 Round-Up, for the 146th and 148th Field Artillery landed in New York Sunday aboard the transports Alaskan and Peerless. The 148th is at Camp Mills and the 146th at Camp Merritt, where they are to remain for two days. On their way to Camp Merritt, the men will pass through Portland and it is expected that they will go through Pendleton.

Among the Umatilla county men in the 146th and 148th are First Lieutenant Wade G. Wallis, son of C. E. Wallis, cashier of the new Inland Empire Bank, of this city, Sergeant Jim Bowler, Pendleton; Frank Dickson, Pendleton, who enlisted in the 65th C. A. C. and was later transferred to the 146th; Blake Bartlett, Pendleton; Leonard Sample, Milton; Ross Mc-

PEACE OR WAR WILL BE KNOWN WITHIN WEEK

French Await With Same
Tension That Marked
Days Preceding War's Start.

TERMS "HARSH" SAY GERMAN OFFICIALS

Enemy Delegates on Return
Say Crowds Stoned and Mistreated Them.

PARIS, June 17.—With peace or war to be determined before 7 o'clock Monday evening the tension in Paris today recalled that preceding the opening of hostilities in August, 1914. The feeling of the French people is illustrated by the fact that when the Germans left the hotel for their special train last night a crowd of 4000 outside hooted and insulted the enemy representatives. This is the first demonstration against them in the weeks they have been in France.

Latest advices from Berlin and Weimar reiterate the declaration that Germany will not accept the revised treaty unless it contains important modifications. Optimism in allied peace circles, which has been noticeable the last few days has changed to a feeling of uncertainty as to whether the Germans will find the modifications sufficient to warrant their acceptance.

There were no demonstrations in the streets and people went about their business as usual but the air was electric with a nervous tension as the citizens slightly considered one great question—"peace or war?" to the eastward, beyond battle scarred regions over which opposing armies fought and re-fought for years.

Marshal Foch's armies wait on German soil for word that will send them marching to Berlin or reduce them to the status of a mere police force. To the northward great ships of the British navy, their movements shrouded in mystery, are known to be preparing for a quick descent upon all last unprotected German coast if the verdict is war.

"Harsh, Smashing, Graft"
BY CARL D. GROOT.
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WEIMAR, June 17.—The German peace delegation is atounded at the tone of Premier Clemenceau's note accompanying the allies note to the counter proposals, according to official advices from Versailles, which the government received last night. The

(Continued on page 6.)

JOE DESPAIN WILL ARRIVE ON NO. 18 TOMORROW EVENING; DEMONSTRATION IS PLANNED IN HONOR OF SOLDIER

"What I long for more than anything else is a sight of the Pendleton depot," wrote Joe Despain a year ago when fighting on the western front was thick and he was daily facing hardships and death in service with the Canadian army.

Tomorrow Joe will get his sight of the depot and of the old town for he is coming back on train No. 18, according to word received by relatives today. He recently arrived in Canada and coming through western Oregon made a visit to his sister, Mrs. Roy Harpelle at McMinnville. On the evening of his arrival there a reception was given him by the McMinnville Commercial Club.

Young Despain entered the Canadian army early in the war and went through some of the hardest fighting on the western front. He went over the top many times and saw practically all his associates killed or wounded. He was himself wounded but not permanently disabled.

In view of the heroic service rendered by young Despain it is desired to give him a good reception tomorrow. Mayor Vaughan hopes to have the band out and as many people as possible at the train tomorrow evening. Inasmuch as Joe Despain was a Pendleton high school student it has been suggested that they join in giving him a welcome home.

Cleaner's Horse Makes Marathon Run Through Town

Small boys at play on Bush street this morning frightened the horse belonging to a cleaner, and the animal ran away, plugging the wagon at the curb beside Folson's undertaking parlors at Welsh and Main streets. The left rear wheel of the wagon was badly shattered. In his unguided dash down Main street the animal narrowly missed several vehicles and was finally halted by Al Richardson after it had rounded the corner. When Bazell arrived at the scene he declared he would trade the horse at once.

LABOR FEDERATION FOR IRISH REPUBLIC

ATLANTIC CITY, June 17.—The American Federation of Labor convention today passed a resolution urging congress to recognize the Irish republic and asking congress and President Wilson to obtain from the peace conference a hearing for the Irish delegates.

Adoption of the resolution followed a hot fight. The convention was in an uproar for 20 minutes at one time. President Gompers was powerless to restore order. Another resolution adopted urged congress to grant a 25 per cent increase for postal workers pending the fixation of a permanent wage scale. The convention will debate the league of nations tomorrow.

PHONE OPERATORS IN SAN FRANCISCO OUT

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—Telephone operators struck here today for two to four dollars a day and recognition of the union. Union officials said the strike would spread to other cities today. The Los Angeles girls are already out.

Electrician workers decided to strike today. Linemen say they include 400 employees of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company here. When the electrical workers struck in sympathy with the girls, press association wires were seriously threatened. Only one man was left to take care of many hoisted wires where 15 men are ordinarily kept busy.

Spreading Rapidly.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—The strike of telephone operators and electrical workers which began here this morning is rapidly spreading over California this afternoon. Starting in Los Angeles yesterday it has already reached San Francisco, Oakland, San Jose, Hollister, Vallejo, Berkeley and Alameda. Strike leaders estimate 2000 are out in the bay district.

FALL OF PETROGRAD TO ALLIES SEEMS BUT MATTER OF SHORT TIME

STOCKHOLM, June 17.—Outer Petrograd defenses have been practically reduced and allied forces are advancing toward the city. The big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron. Simultaneously the big fortress of Krasnaya Gorka hoisted the white flag and was followed by several other lesser forts. Allied troops immediately landed to the east of Krasnaya and began marching up the city. It is reported. Shortly afterward seven Bolshevik warships left their anchorage and surrendered to a British squadron.